

Every Little Thing

By Bob Marley and Cedella Marley

Enjoy the Book Together

- In this story, three little birds have some advice to offer! What is the advice?
- Look at the pictures of the boy in the kitchen with his parents. Discuss what's happening. Did the boy make a mistake? How did his parents feel about what he did? How do you know?

Make Personal Connections

- Ask your child, "What is one little thing that you worry about? What makes you feel like 'every little thing is gonna be all right?'" Now tell your child one little thing that you worry about. Explain what makes you feel like "every little thing is gonna be all right."

Literacy Tip

This book is based on the song "Three Little Birds," by Bob Marley. Read the author's note to find out who wrote the book, and why—it's pretty cool! Then turn to the very last page and read about Bob Marley.

Every Little Thing

By Bob Marley and Cedella Marley

The cat feels one way about the birds at the beginning and another way at the end! Draw the cat and birds below.

The cat wants to catch the birds!

The cat and the birds are friends!